

Perspectives on Family Support and Employee Reintegration

Wednesday 6 September 2017, 08.30–16.30 at Canary Wharf, London

Programme

08.30	Registration and Coffee
09.00	Welcome from our Hosts
09.05	Welcome from Hostage UK	Lara Symons , Director
09.10	Introduction Speech	Philip Barton , Director General, Consular and Security, Foreign and Commonwealth Office
09.20	The Employer's Role in Family Liaison and Hostage Reintegration	Mark Powell , Independent Consultant, Nigeria
10.00	The UK Response to Criminal Kidnaps	David Jones , Head of the Anti Kidnap and Extortion Unit, National Crime Agency
10.40	Coffee Break
11.00	Terrorist Kidnapping Now and in the Future	Nicola White , Associate Director Special Risks Analysis, Control Risks
11.40	The Hostage and Family Perspective	Interview with Federico Motka , chaired by Terry Waite CBE, Hostage UK
12.40	Lunch
13.30	The UK Government Response to Kidnapping	Jim Collins and Adam Dady , Foreign and Commonwealth Office Neil Stapley OBE , Metropolitan Police Service
14.15	"I Sometimes Think I Can't Do Right for Doing Wrong!"	David Alexander , Emeritus Professor of Mental Health, Robert Gordon University
15.00	Coffee Break
15.20	Employers' Duty of Care in Hostage Crises	Ed Bowyer , Partner, Hogan Lovells International LLP
16.10	Concluding Remarks

HOSTAGE UK